Terre L. Vandervoort, Judge

In the Matter of the GUARDIANSHIP of: _____

Case No. _____

ATTENTION APPLICANTS

When there has been a DIVORCE or a Court proceeding in JUVENILE COURT or any proceeding filed in ANY OTHER COURT involving the minor for whom a guardian is sought, the applicant must prove by clear and convincing evidence that this Court has jurisdiction to issue a guardianship Order. The Court will presume it does not have jurisdiction to make guardianship Order. If you cannot prove the Court has jurisdiction, you will lose your filing fee. There will be no refunds. The Court will notify the Board of Education that the guardianship application has been dismissed. It is suggested that you consult with an attorney.

I have read and understood that I may lose my filing fee.
