IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, OHIO PROBATE DIVISION

TERRE L. VANDERVOORT, JUDGE

LETTERS OF AUTHORITY FOR SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR [R.C. 2113.15] Name and Title of Fiduciary:	ESTATE OF	, DECEASED
SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR [R.C. 2113.15] Name and Title of Fiduciary:	CASE NO
Valid through	SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR
The decedent was a resident of Fairfield County, Ohio at the time of death. The Court has appointed the fiduciary as Special Administrator of the decedent's estate for the period stated above. The Court has dispensed with bond by Local Rule. The Court has granted the Special Administrator full power and authority to take any action necessary to investigate and gather information regarding all aspects of the decedent's estate, including without limitation the composition and value of the decedent's assets, the decedent's liabilities or other material aspects of the estate that are or will be necessary or beneficial in the formal administration of the decedent's estate. The Special Administrator specifically has authority to access the decedent's safe deposit boxes, but may not remove any items from the box except the Last Will. The Special Administrator may also access the decedent's mail and may change the address with the United States Postal Service to redirect delivery to the Special Administrator, or to his or her attorney. The Special Administrator does not have any power to actually access any of the decedent's financial assets, close or transfer any accounts, sell, transfer or distribute any assets, pay any liabilities, bind the estate to any obligations or institute or defend any lawsuit, without prior separate Court authority. NOTICE TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS These Letters of Authority constitute a formal Court Order of the Fairfield County Probate Court. Any attempt to limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other financial information is a violation of this Court Order and may constitute contempt of court. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge Date Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge Deputy Clerk Total Administrator and authority to investigate and authority to the a	Name and Title of Fiduciary:	, Special Administrator
The Court has appointed the fiduciary as Special Administrator of the decedent's estate for the period stated above. The Court has dispensed with bond by Local Rule. The Court has granted the Special Administrator full power and authority to take any action necessary to investigate and gather information regarding all aspects of the decedent's estate, including without limitation the composition and value of the decedent's assets, the decedent's liabilities or other material aspects of the estate that are or will be necessary or beneficial in the formal administration of the decedent's estate. The Special Administrator specifically has authority to access the decedent's safe deposit boxes, but may not remove any items from the box except the Last Will. The Special Administrator may also access the decedent's mail and may change the address with the United States Postal Service to redirect delivery to the Special Administrator, or to his or her attorney. The Special Administrator does not have any power to actually access any of the decedent's financial assets, close or transfer any accounts, sell, transfer or distribute any assets, pay any liabilities, bind the estate to any obligations or institute or defend any lawsuit, without prior separate Court authority. NOTICE TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS These Letters of Authority constitute a formal Court Order of the Fairfield County Probate Court. Any attempt to limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other financial information is a violation of this Court Order and may constitute contempt of court. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge Deputy Clerk Deputy Clerk Deputy Cle	Valid through
Court has dispensed with bond by Local Rule. The Court has granted the Special Administrator full power and authority to take any action necessary to investigate and gather information regarding all aspects of the decedent's estate, including without limitation the composition and value of the decedent's assets, the decedent's liabilities or other material aspects of the estate that are or will be necessary or beneficial in the formal administration of the decedent's estate. The Special Administrator specifically has authority to access the decedent's safe deposit boxes, but may not remove any items from the box except the Last Will. The Special Administrator may also access the decedent's mail and may change the address with the United States Postal Service to redirect delivery to the Special Administrator, or to his or her attorney. The Special Administrator does not have any power to actually access any of the decedent's financial assets, close or transfer any accounts, sell, transfer or distribute any assets, pay any liabilities, bind the estate to any obligations or institute or defend any lawsuit, without prior separate Court authority. NOTICE TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS These Letters of Authority constitute a formal Court Order of the Fairfield County Probate Court. Any attempt to limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other financial information is a violation of this Court Order and may constitute contempt of court. Date Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY* The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge Deputy Clerk Deputy Clerk Deputy Clerk	The decedent was a resident of Fairfield County, Ohio at the tim	e of death.
gather information regarding all aspects of the decedent's estate, including without limitation the composition and value of the decedent's assets, the decedent's liabilities or other material aspects of the estate that are or will be necessary or beneficial in the formal administration of the decedent's estate. The Special Administrator specifically has authority to access the decedent's safe deposit boxes, but may not remove any items from the box except the Last Will. The Special Administrator may also access the decedent's mail and may change the address with the United States Postal Service to redirect delivery to the Special Administrator, or to his or her attorney. The Special Administrator does not have any power to actually access any of the decedent's financial assets, close or transfer any accounts, sell, transfer or distribute any assets, pay any liabilities, bind the estate to any obligations or institute or defend any lawsuit, without prior separate Court authority. NOTICE TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS These Letters of Authority constitute a formal Court Order of the Fairfield County Probate Court. Any attempt to limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other financial information is a violation of this Court Order and may constitute contempt of court. Date CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY* The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk Deputy Clerk		of the decedent's estate for the period stated above. The
These Letters of Authority constitute a formal Court Order of the Fairfield County Probate Court. Any attempt to limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other financial information is a violation of this Court Order and may constitute contempt of court. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: (Seal) Deputy Clerk	gather information regarding all aspects of the decedent's estate the decedent's assets, the decedent's liabilities or other mater beneficial in the formal administration of the decedent's estate. To the decedent's safe deposit boxes, but may not remove any Administrator may also access the decedent's mail and may characteristic.	re, including without limitation the composition and value of rial aspects of the estate that are or will be necessary or he Special Administrator specifically has authority to access y items from the box except the Last Will. The Special range the address with the United States Postal Service to
These Letters of Authority constitute a formal Court Order of the Fairfield County Probate Court. Any attempt to limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other financial information is a violation of this Court Order and may constitute contempt of court. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk	transfer any accounts, sell, transfer or distribute any assets, pay
Date Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk	NOTICE TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk	limit or impede the Special Administrator's access to information regarding the decedent's accounts or other
CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk
The above document is a true copy of the original kept by me as custodian of this Court. It constitutes the appointment and letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk	Date	Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge
letters of authority of the named Special Administrator, who is qualified and acting in that capacity. Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge By: Deputy Clerk	CERTIFICATE OF APPOINTMENT AND INCUMBENCY
(Seal) By: Deputy Clerk
(Seal) Deputy Clerk		Terre L. Vandervoort, Probate Judge
	Ву:
	(Seal)	Deputy Clerk
L)ate		Date	