

FAIRFIELD COUNTY PROBATE COURT
CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK
INFORMATION & CONSENT

Under the provisions of Senate Bill 38, the agency completing the assessment is required to have the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (BCII) conduct a criminal records check on individuals who are responsible for care, custody, and control of children. If the records check results indicate a disqualifying condition as prescribed by 5101.2-33-52 of the Administrative Code, the individual may be denied consideration as an adoptive parent or guardian.

The information reported by BCII is not a public record and will not be made available to anyone other than Probate Court.
