- (b.) If a mental health issue exists, there are no issues that interfere in reality perception or overall cognitive function
- (c.) Clients may not have a medical condition that interferes with one's ability to engage in treatment and complete objectives on the case plan
- (d.) Present and demonstrate a sincere willingness to participate in the long term treatment process

2. LEGAL CRITERIA

If the parent has no legal counsel, then an application will be provided to the parent to obtain counsel. With permission of counsel, if the parent meets the legal and clinical requirements of Family Court, a drug, alcohol and mental health assessment will be conducted by appropriately licensed counselors to determine recommendations and further determine appropriateness for the program. If a parent is accepted into the Family Court Program, a participation agreement with the parent and the parent's legal counsel will be completed. Treatment services determined by the assessment will be promptly made available to the parent. Each Family Court participant's substance abuse will be closely monitored by random, frequent, and observed drug and alcohol testing. This testing will meet the requirements set forth in Appendix I, Standard 8 of the Rules of Superintendence. This process is fully described in the Family Court Policy and Procedure Manual. Each participant's performance and progress will be closely monitored by regularly conducted treatment team meetings and ongoing judicial interaction which shall occur no less frequently than twice monthly while in the initial phases of the program. Movement through the program results in less frequent judicial interaction and supervision.

(D) COMPLETION AND TERMINATION FROM THE FAIRFIELD COUNTY FAMILY COURT PROGRAM

Should a parent graduate from The Family Court Program, an entry will be placed in the court file noting the graduation. If a parent is terminated due to a neutral termination or due to non-compliance with rules and requirements of the program, an entry will be placed in the court file noting the type of termination.
